

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Atlanta, GA – December 15, 2014: 5 Reasons Not to Miss the Riot Starter Symposium:

1. It's going to be held at the beautiful Commerce Club, Atlanta, GA.
2. Breakfast, Lunch, Door prizes and Parking are included.
3. I get to network with other like-minded individuals.
4. I will leave with an an understanding of how to put my vision board into action for my life, business or career.
5. I get 6 great speakers that will provide life changing information.

The Riot Starter Symposium is in its third year. The 2015 symposium is the first year it will be listed as "The Riot Starter" and the theme is "I am the Key to My Change".

The symposium is priced at only $99 for the entire day and includes both breakfast and lunch. There are options to pay as little as $59 for the ticket. Those who attended in 2012 or 2013 will be able to purchase tickets for the lowest price, in addition to select groups.

The 6 featured presenters are award winning and have 15 to 20 years of experience within their fields. The presentations will cover such things as social media, tools for success, developing powerful relationships, and more.

"Wanna Start Riot? Change." author Taunya A. Lowe, PhD is the creator of this event and also the CEO of a leadership development consulting firm. Her book of the same name will be autographed and given to all attendees. She is a protégé of John Maxwell as well as an international speaker.

The moderation of the event will be done by Jai Stone. Stone is a branding and entrepreneurial expert with 15 years of experience. She has helped work on some of the most recognizable brands around the globe. As a blogger, her work has appeared in such publications as Essence Magazine and the Huffington Post.

The event is scheduled to take place February 6, 2015, from 9 am until 4:30 pm at The Commerce Club, located at 191 Peachtree Street on the 49th floor in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Riot Starter Symposium is designed to help people with their personal and business lives and help with the overall change and development of each. The symposium has been described as "life changing" by those who have attended in previous years.

"I'm looking forward to attending in 2015. I attended in 2012 and 2013 and learned so much. It helped me to make changes to my lifestyle as well as my business and the speakers have been phenomenal," exclaims James, an entrepreneur in Roswell, Georgia. There have been comments of similar nature from other attendees of past symposiums.

Tickets are currently available and seats are limited. The early bird seats can help people to save $20 on the cost of the ticket, so it is encouraged for people to sign up quickly. Register today at www.theriotstarter.com or call us at 1-855-873-4445.